The optional provisions are:

(A) The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and successor provisions thereto (the "Code").

(B) In these Articles of Incorporation and in any amendments to it, the term "charitable purposes" shall be limited to and shall include only religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of those terms as used in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, but only such purposes as also constitute public charitable purposes under the law of corporations of the State of Georgia.

(C) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

(D) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the charitable purposes set forth in these articles. The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to the betterment of communities served and no part of the net income or assets of the Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof, or to the benefit of any private individual.

(E) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

(F) It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to carry out the purposes and functions of the Corporation. The Board of Directors shall be elected in accordance with the By-Laws of the Corporation, and shall have the powers and duties set forth in these Articles of Incorporation, and in such By-Laws, to the extent that such powers and duties are not inconsistent with the status of the Corporation as a nonprofit corporation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and the law of corporations of the State of Georgia.

(G) The Corporation shall have a perpetual duration until otherwise terminated by the Board of Directors.

(H) Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be, after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of this Corporation, transferred exclusively to and shall become the property of such nonprofit funds, foundations, or corporations as are designated by the Board of Directors of this Corporation and which: (1) are organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, hospital, scientific, or educational purposes; and (2) have established their tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Incorporation on the date set forth below.
